House Schedules on Building Materials and Sugar Get Close Scrutiny

Other Proposed Provisions Also Meet Disapproval at White House

WASHINGTON, May 13. (P)—Administration disapproval on the House tariff bill as a whole and of a number of specific rates in particular is becoming more manifest as the measure is studied by President Hoover's close advisors.

While general debate on the committee measure went forward today in the House, word went forth that the schedules proposed on building materials and sugar are receiving close scrutiny at the White House, along with a number of others affecting manufactured products.

The transferring of cement, brick and shingles from the free to the dutiable list is said to be giving administration officers concern, as they might result in increased costs WASHINGTON, May 13. (P)-Ad-

Some administration leaders in the Senate who come from the East assert that they are giving special study to duties proposed on wintercops in Florids, in view of the support for the debenture plan which was given by the southern Senators.

These Senators also have told the President that they are opposed to a number of increases in duties proposed for manufactured ariseles on the ground that a sufficient showing to warrant advances in import

WASHINGTON, May 13. (P)-

WASHINGTON, May 13. (#)—Secretary Good has recommended that Congress give the President authority to conscript the manpower of the nation for immediate military service in time of war.

Upon the recommendation of the Secretary of War, Acting Chairman, James of the House Military Committee, today introduced a bill to give the President permanent authority to call male persons between 18 and 45 years of age to the public armed forces whenever Congress makes a declaration of war. The measure, Secretary Good worde, was based on a study of the laws effecting the selective service of the World War which terminated with measure, socreary Good wrote, was based on a study of the laws effecting the selective service of the World War which terminated with the emergency.

PROMPTNESS NECESSARY
"The proposed legislation," the letter said, "prepared as a result of a careful study of the World War selective service laws and their execution, would re-enact, in suitable form, the principles of those laws. "The most critical period in any great emergency involving armed condict is that immediately following a declaration of war, for it is the period during which our armed forces must be mobilized when they are weakest. The saving of a few days or even a day during that period may spell the difference between a prompt victory and a long war." Causes Troops to Stand by CANTON (Ghina) May 13. TO BE MADE MONUMENT

WASHINGTON, May 13. Exclusive)—The existence of interesting prehistoric ruins in the vicinity of the Moapa and Virgin Rivers in Southeastern Nevada, near Boulder Canyon, led President Hoover to sign an executive order providing for the temporary withdrawal from actitement of approximately 144,000 acres that it might be examined by experts of the Department of the Interior as to the advisability of including all or part of it within a national monument.

Within the valley of the Moapa River, iributary to Virgin River, which will be a part of the reserve voir when the Colorado is dammed, are vestiges of early man in America in a significant stage of his development. ONE LESS WORRY FOR MODERN HOSTESS.—Refrigerator not working when she needs it most, water where she expected to find sparkling cubes of ice—that's a hazard the Electrolux owner never encounters. And why shouldn't the gas refrigerator be dependable when it has no machinery, not a single moving part to wear or cause trouble.

ICE FOR LIFE.—In the gas refrigerator a tiny flame is your iceman. Light it and forget it. Flame takes the place of all machinery. Electrolux needs no attention ever, except for periodic defrosting. You'll have constant noiseless cold, plenty of pure ice cubes always, at lowest cost. The reason for this low cost is that Electrolux operates on gas and water alone, which are relatively cheap and used in small quantity.

"all electric" console receiver

The RCA mark on a radio instrument is a guarantee of expert design, fine workmanship and super performance known the world over.

RCA Radiolas have never been built "down to a price." But the great demand for RCA sets has so increased production that large economies in manufacturing have been effected.

The new "all electric" 33 is far superior in performance to receivers that cost several times as much to build three or four years ago. It is a notable achievement of the associated research laboratories of RCA, General Electric and Westinghouse.

If you have denied yourself the satisfaction of owning a real RCA Radiola, you now have the opportunity of buying one of the latest design at the amazingly low price of $77.50. Such a fine radio instrument - RCA throughout - has never before been possible at such a price.

Roosevelt Field, Inc.

EVERY one agrees that the future of aviation will advance the price of many aviation securities. But which ones? What new developments will render present methods obsolete? What companies will prove themselves possessed of such management that success is sure?

The investor who wishes to share in the future of aviation, but who hesitates for lack of answer to these questions, may well consider stock of Roosevelt Field, Inc.

No matter what the future holds, landing fields will be needed. Roosevelt Field, serving New York City, will have 487 acres, acquired at less than the appraised value of the land. The property is exceptionally suited to its purpose, by location, contour, and freedom from flying obstructions, and is already developed. Further construction of hangars, instruction buildings, repair shops, and service facilities, and addition of a commercial flying department are planned.

Roosevelt Field. Inc. is in position to advance with the aviation industry—not to suffer from its advances. We recomment the common stock as a desirable investment in the aviation industry.

We will gladly furnish further information

d wish to call at our Board

THE advantage to the consumer of L large industrial units is exemplified in the electric light and power industry Through the holding company plan great plants and transmission systems have been built which have brought service to 4,000 additional communities in the past 5 years In this period electricity was supplied to at least 7,000,000 additional homes While the general price level of commodities remained high, the price of electricity to the consumer was sharply reduced . . . Only by large corporate and operating units could these results have been accomplished The gas industry, also, is an obvious demonstration of mass production and distribution

As underwriters, wholesalers and distributors of investment securities we have tified with the financing of electric and gas companies for more than 25 years. Our services also include the financing of various industrial enterprises, highway bridges, railroads and municipalities.

Commercial Aviation as an Aid to Business

> Merchants and manufacturers in many lines of business are looking to commercial aviation as a means of increasing their sales.

> Rapid transportation means quicker deliveries, wider distribution and greater business volume. All of which, in turn, make for greater profits. With its fleet of great tri-motored planes and established air lines covering many of the prin-cipal cities of the great Southwest the Maddux Air Lines Co. is becoming an increasingly important factor in the development of commerce by usually overlooked.

CONSERVATISM in in vestment need not mean vestment need not mean sacrificing income or possibilities for appreciation of principal. Some of the highest grade securities combine these qualities most satisfactorily, and yet offer a splendid margin of safety.

It is not easy, however, as uncover investments of this type. For an individual it is, estremely difficult, nince all the necessary data are simply not available to him. On the other hand, an organization like Brookmire can and does ind such outstanding investment opportunities.

The oldestand largest organization of its character in the United States—Brookmire brings to bear on investment problems a mature, careful and accurate judgment.

Several chousand investors knowthis, for they are already clients. You can learn of Brookmire's ability from them, or from your bank, or from any economist. Meanwhile a description of the Service, showing what it is and how you can use it will be sent upon receipe of the coupon.

A STATE WAS ASSESSED.

This doesn't show under Assets!

YOUR CAPACITY TO MANAGE YOUR BUSINESS .. is not itemized on your balance sheets .. yet that capacity is THE factor .. which decides the worth of your securities .. as it does .. for the MUTUAL Building and Loan Association OF POMONA.

We can't list our State of California records for build-ing and loan associations as of any book value. But we wouldn't take a quarter of a million cash for those records. They PROVE capable management, don't they? Allowing us to pay 6%, with safety.

HOW WOULD YOU JUDGE THIS MANAGEMENT . in the way of caution and conservatism . . when through 36½ years . . there has been but ONE loan-

Yet that record can't be put on our books as being worth one penny in the way of assets. It is in a more important place—on the walls of your memory. Worth more to us in producing the good will of our friends and neighbors in Pomona Velley and Spathern California.

There are many clever forms of publicity, making mo-mentary impressions, perhaps. But it has taken the MUTUAL Building and Loan Association OF POMONA more than three decades to establish its three California records.

WHEN YOU WANT SIX PER CENT AND SAFETY .. in a building and loan association .. or any financial institution .. we urge your examination .. of the record .. of that organization's management.

There are no short-cuts past Caution and Conserva-tism to success in the building-loan industry. We have found no substitute for safety. In the MUTUAL OF, POMONA, our resources of $12,750,000 are backed by $2,750,000 capital, surplus and reserve. WITH UNLIMITED LIABILITY.

NOTICIAS MUNDIALES

NOTAS TELEGRAFICAS

Roma, Mayo 13.—El primer ministro Mussolini, habiando estatarde ante le cámara de diputados atestada de gente, declaró que Roma, en vista de los acuerdos de Letrán firmados el 11 de Febrero último, se ha convertido en la verdadera capital católica del mundo, y es, al propio tiempo, la verdadera capital política de Italia.

Leyó el dictator lo que había sido la actitud de Napoleón hacia la Santa Sede, y la censuró largamente. Criticó asimismo el principio de Cavour de "una igiesia libre en un estado libre".

Dijo que no era viable este último principio por no ser suficiente, pues precisa definir, agregó, el limite de las dos instituciones.

Be ganó una ovación entusitatica más adelante cuando dijo que al espiritu de la nueva Italia se la debía el acuerdo. Todos los diputados se levantaron de sus ciurules y lamaron vitores.

Describiendo las relaciones entre la iglesia y el estado, dijo el primer ministro: "Hay, por lo tanto, dos soberanías, bien distintas y claramente diferenciadas, perfecta y reciprocamente reconocidas."

Se Decreta el Pare de las Industrias de la Censtrucción NUEVA YORK, Mayo 13.—La Junta de Directores de la Sociedad de Empresarios Constructores ha decretado hoy el despido de actenta y cinco mil empleados de los diferentes ramos de la construcción Entrará en vigor esta disposición el próximo miércoles, a las 5 de la tarde.

No reference is made by the Mayor to the fact that that Mr. Stephens accompanied the members of the Council's Finance Committee to Pasadena to invite Mr. Untermyer to take the case or that, after Mr. Untermyer's return to the East, he conducted his negotiations for the position with the City Attorney.

In addition, however, to maintaining the illegality of the retainer, the Mayor gives it as his opinion that it would not be proper to employ special counsel at this time. He argues that a new City Attorney and a new City Council will be in office at time of the hearing before the Supreme Court. He says it should be left to the new City Attorney to determine whether

YOUNG PEOPLE ASSAIL

PASTORS' LACK OF PEP At yesterday's hearing before the Council committee, Guy Earl and L. Lichtenberger spoke in opposition to the change of zone. In the main they confined their arguments to those mentioned in the formal protest signed by all the property owners opposed to the change, which men of the gospel, preach and pray too long in public and lack the courage of their convictions, if they have any convictions, according to the opinions of accores of members of representative groups of young people of four different churches in Los Angeles.

These indictments against the average modern minister were read at the Methodist Preachers' Meeting yesterday by Rev. Russell E. Clay, pastor of Florence Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church, who had asked the young people the question:

"They wish to enter more whole-heartedly into the work of the church and they criticise us for not meeting them half way. Many of the young men and women told me that the youth of today wants less the-ology and more Christiality. They say many of the preachers are dull, lack a sense of humor, are too dogmatic and too emotional and that we would do well to lay greater stress on the intellectual side of life. For my part, I think there is much justification for their criticism."

Another speaker was Dr. E. P. Ryland, secretary of the Church Federation, who urged the pastors to take more active interest in the monthly meetings of the Church Federation Council and advocated greater activity and interest on the part of the churches in all questions that have to do with social welfare.

Time Held Short for Action on Petition Now

The first request for a reco election has been filed with City Clerk Domingues, the move being directed against James R. Gentry, who ran second to Councilman Lewis in the Eighth District.

The request for the recount was made by J. W. Toma, who was third, and by Mrs. V. G. Marsden, wife of Harold P. Marsden, who placed fourth in the race in that district. PASADENA, May 12.—Three proposed sites for the 200-inch telescope to be erected by the California Institute of Technology will be subjected to atmospheric tests over a two-year period, it was revealed today. Each of the sites is within twenty miles of this city, this fact discounting reports that the giant instrument might be located in Arisona.

Horse Flats, ten miles north of site and its accessibility could not be learned today.

Mileon, Pleasant View Ridge, fifteen miles northeast of Mt. Wilson, and another location said to be in the vicinity of Cable Mountain, are the sites to be sunjected to rigid tests.

Observers with small telescopes will make regular atmospheric tests at thece three points and at other proposed sites, the locations of which have not been atmounced.

Horse Flats, according to United State Porest Service rangers, will be accessible from Mt. Wilson by automobile over a new forestry road now under construction that will extend to Palmdale.

The Pleasant View Ridge site, it is pointed out, is less than three miles from the Pallett Creek Road, which extends to the State highway and Cajon Pass.

I The Federal Trade Commission is naming a committee of experts to investigate alleged fraudulent advertising. Any publicity that makes for unfair competition may properly be considered by the commission. Of course no general survey is contemplated or will be attempted, but sometimes there are glaring examples of exaggeration or duplicity in national merchandising and some of this will be found and corrected. The square deal for everybody is the only thing they are trying to put over. This should be acceptable to all.

TIP LEGISLATION

In connection with the itch for regulation there is a bill before the Legislature. Of obtaining general observance of general criminal law, is at least as difficult as the prohibition problem, with the necessary data, perhaps commission, without doubt, has a long and hard job ahead of it. Not only the world, will be interested in its conditions. The degree of its success in speluding bias, will be the degree of its success in sucluding bias, will be the degree of acceptance of these conclusions as a basis for future action, not only here, but elsewhere.

If Mr. Hoover were not President, he himself would be an ideal man to head such a commission. The nation hopes that he will be able to find for its membership, men near to his own mental make-up.

to take his time, because the commission has for its subject one of immense complication, and the personnel of the body is of the first importance. Its findings may help to decide national policy in a matter which has stirred up an enormous amount of controversy, and on which leaders of opinion are by no means agreed. Men whose good faith and sincerity cannot be doubted are found on both sides.

It is a commission from which fanatics and extremists of either party must obviously be excluded. Men of open minds and judicial temperaments are needed for such work, but they must have something more besides—an instinct for the truth and a knowledge of how to get it. This is not to say that say body of men can be brought together, who will be free from preconceptions or even from prejudices; prohibition in particular has been discussed so extensively that the man who has no opinion concerning it must be incapable of forming any on any subject. But they must be men who will be able to lay aside prejudice and preconceived opinion where convincing evidence to the contrary is adduced.

Prohibition will necessarily take up most of the commission's time not because it is the most important phase of the law-enforcement problem, but because it is the most important phase of the law-enforcement problem, but because it is the most important phase of the law-enforcement problem, but because it is the most important phase of the law-enforcement problem, but because it is the most important phase of the law-enforcement problem, but because there assembled and are assembling tons of data, for the express purpose of presenting it as soon as the commission starts its sessions.

tons of data; for the express purpose of presenting it as soon as the commission starts its sessions.

For the wet side it will be contended, presumably, that prohibition enforcement has not succeeded and, therefore, cannot succeed in shutting off the flow of bootlegged alcoholic liquors. It will be asserted that a vast amount of crime and corruption is directly traceable to enforcement efforts. Incidents of overzealousness and even of brutality on the part of enforcement officers in all parts of the country will be cited—the slaying of Mrs. DeKing at Aurora, Ill., and similar occurrences will be brought up in this category. No true friend of prohibition will be able to deny that this record, in some respects, is a black one, and no true friend of prohibition will omit to deplore that such things take place, no matter how much he considers that the evils of prohibition are more than overbalanced by its good effects.

The drys will contend, on the other hand, that enforcement is progressively more successful as time goes on. They will point, out that the smart fad of liquor drinking is more and more being frowned mon by the more intelligent

The evening rush hour was at its peak when a couple of ears suddenly haited at Sunset and Figueros, causing a long line of traffic to stack up in an instant. The traffic signal said "Go," and ninety-nine men (if we said 100 we'd have to put it in figures, and figures look too defirite; we didn't count em) stretched and strained their eyes to see what was the matter, and were all set to swear. But they didn't. They laughed. For a little, bewildered dog was causing that tie-up. There were cars to right of it, cars in front of it, cars all around, and it was trotting around in a circle.

The line of stalled cars lengthened. Had a brother motorist caused that jam he would have been ardently consigned to the eternal erematorium by hundreds of people so eager to get home and begin wondering what to do with the rest of the evening that they could brook no delay. Had even a sister motorist caused it comparatively few would have expressed themselves in quotations from Chevaller Bayard, Sir Walt Raielgh or Lord Chesterfield. But a little dog caused it and everybody chuckled. One m a n alighted from his car, picked up the dog, carried it to safety—and then the mad cataract of cars rushed on.

But the government should not be wholly relied upon to do this work. It has a sufficient job in protecting trees from fire and blight. Reforestation is hearst a matter for interests. Recent government statistics show that we cannot much longer continue to cut annually in this country the equivalent of a solid pile of wood four feet high, four feet wide and long enough to encircle the globe fifteen times and then in addition to this, lose 38,000,000 acres of timber a year by forest fires and suffer fully that much loss through disease and insect pests. It is estimated that if we continue on at the present rate of tree devastation there will be a serious lumber shortage within the next six years.

Johnson's Record

LA JOLLA (Cal.) May 10.—
[To the Editor of The Times:]
Your editorial in the issue of May 10 on the political treachpry of Senator Elram Johnson is certainly very much to the Ever since he's been trying to harden himself to bloody scenes, and lately has taken his small son with him. At the Olympic the other night they, had ringside seats, and the boy turned to him, pleadingly.

"These are the best seats ever, Dad," he said.
"Don't faint to-night. If things get bad just don't look—and I'll tell you about it afterward."

May 10 on the political treachery of Senator Hiram Johnson is certainly very much to the point.

Myself and several of my friends remarked that we very much doubted Senator Johnson's loyalty to the President and we were sure that once he gained office again he would show up in his true colors. His idea is, as you say to embarrans the Hoover administration in every way in his power, but he has always been a dog in the manger through all recent Republican administrations.

Johnson benefitted from the "harmony plan" of the last Presidential campaign and for his own purpose he assumed a loyalty he had no idea of adhering to. A difference of opinion in political matters is perfectly legitimate, but to assume that Mr. Johnson's attitude is dictated by sincere political opinion is not justifiable.

The Little Busy Bee?

LOS ANGELES, May 9.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Relative to the much-discussed overwork for high school and other students, may I contribute my mite to the argument? I live near one of the large junior high schools and as a worker in a church come into touch with a great many young people. My observation is that the young people are really absorbed in athletics, entertainments, etc., to the considerable exclusion of attention to studies which get the "scraps" of time left after these "more important" matters have been looked after.

Just as I write, the school near me has 400 or 500 students standing watching a small group go through a Maypole dance or some such gyration, and has had them there for an hour. When there is a football or base-ball match coming on in high schools, hours must be spent in assembly practicing yells and "pepping up" the student body to "support the team," and when the match comes off, of course all must go no matter what the distance or time consumed. Hours are spent in making costumes, practicing, etc., for entertainments, carrying on paper drives, and so on, to raise money for schools which are already supported by a staggering load of taxes. Any odd time left is to be defected to study, and "there ye alr" as Mr. Dooley used to say.

LOS ANGELES, May 11.—(To have spent about fifteen years as a teacher in the public schools of this nation. I have raised a family. The increasing amount of home work demanded of school children grows noticeably pathetic. I cannot concive of any excuse for this condition. We all realize that it is partially due to the endless topics into which the few real branches of learning are divided and subdivided. Much blame can be placed on so-called writers of text-books, working, profitably and in harmony, with the publishers of these school volumes. Some day, I hope soon, there will be less frills and fancies and more practical work demanded in the schools. Children are entitled to more practical cal classroom work. Give them more useful information of a workable nature and less trivial shadows of learning. Let us boast less and think more of our top-heavy school curriculum.

ROLLYWOOD, May 9.—(To the Editor of The Times:] Why all this tragedy in your comic strip? My physician advised me some years ago to begin the day by reading Gumps, along with the other famous funny folks. I was supposed to read nothing morbid or tragic—and now have been dragged into it and I am apt to suffer a relapse if things do not get brighter. Foor Mary Carr with her big eyes still haunts me. I had no idea you would let her dieafter all of little Chester's hairbreadth escapes. I even had hopes she wasn't really deaduntill she was buried. Now it looks as if Tom Carr, nose and all, was going to either die of a broken heart or commit suicide. Uncle Bim would be refreshing for a change—only the widow Zander might succeed in capturing him, and then more sorrow. Or even worse, that awking cook might, if poor Tom should lose his reason, marry him—but don't let that happen.

The probability is that Senator Johnson has thought this thing all out in the solitude of many a midnight hour. He starts with the proposition that his career is to be that of a politician strictly of the self-is not likely to see, namely, that in such an emergency there are men of very much greater ability. Should there be a reversal the leadership will be taken by men like Borah who are honest and conscientious, and radical from principle. In the meantime the people are not likely to forget that such episodes as the latest in the Johnson career, a very ordinary if rather agile piece of political trickery merely to spite a rival—does not represent the stuff that statesmen are made of, nor anything upon which it is safe to repose a country's confidence.

Making a somber fringe against the sky
Where low white clouds in aimless columns fly.
Below, the streamlet in its narrow bed
By far-off snows of lofty mountains fed,
Mingles its song with their each restless sigh;
The wind's soft echoes as they make reply
In words that are so eloquently said.

In our own backyard, for example, three championships were decided.—Southern California golf, Southern California tennis and State interscholastic track and field.

Sandwiched in with these were out-of-town shows such as the British golf open, the first no-hit, no-run game in the major leagues in three years, and some high and fancy depth bombing by the owners of the Pacific Coast League while their athletes were shelling the diamonds.

These were just the high spots—the extra bits tacked on to the usual weekly quota of sports.

Mr. Seth Van Patten of the C.I.F. looked up at a lot of empty seats in the Coliseum the other day when a sparkling meet was being run off and remarked sadly about the size of the crowd.

Mr. Van Patten forgot to take into account that side attractions such as golf, tennis, baseball and weather that inclines one's ear to the tune of the ocean are bound to take their toll.

MARATHON EXCITEMENT

THE interest shows in The Times pre-Olympic Marathon race which is to be run here June 15 has been exceedingly gratifying.
Although distance running has never been in high favor in Southern California the turnout of runners premises to be unusually large. And the co-operation of organizations in helping put over an ever which will do a lot toward development of runners for the Olympic Games here in 1932 has been praiseworthy.

It would be a shame if Southern California was not formidably represented in the 1932 Olympic Marathon when the event will be held right in our own backyard.

It is with this thought in mind that The Times will stage the first of the pre-Olympic Marathons here next month.

And later in the summers—with the same usefile in mind—an accan race between the Venice and Ocean Park piers will be aponpared.

sored.

The distance between the two piers is approximately threefourths of a mile.

Years ago these races—not quite so long—were held annually.
Lady Langer was a several-time winner. And on Duke Kahasumoku's first trip from the Hawatian Islands the brenze-skinned pwimmer—then in the heyday of his glory—bested Langer in one of the greatest rough-water duels over staged.

Miller, who placed fourth in the high hurdles in the southern meet, won t a high hurdles in the State, and Ruby did equally well in the broad. He jumped from fourth to first in the two meets, and if Obergfall had lived up to the dope sheet in the 880 and the relay team not fallen from grace Hollywood would have pushed San Diego for first place.

However, the university that lands Chergfall will have a real quartermile prospect. His race is the 440 and not the half, which he has been running in high school most of the time.

He loss, much of his powerful drive in the stretch by running with head far back, but this will be overcome and when it is the boy is bound to be a marvel as a 440 demon.

The Pittsburgh Pirates inflicted a seventh successive defeat on the Bobins today, hammering four Brooklyn pitchers for eighteen hits and a 12-to-4 decision. Larry French went the route for the Pirates, giving nine hits.

Every member of the Pittsburgh Regan best out a hit to shoot filling in the base of the list with three hits each. Breasier had a perfect day for Brooklyn with three hits is as many trips to the plate.

Wildness on the part of French gave the Robins two runs in the first inning, but he settled down while the Pirates came back with a four-run rally in the second frame. Elliott was driven from the box in that inning, Dudley, Pattison and Bradshaw followed him. Score:

HIT SOLON HURLERS

Wade Killefer's Reds were hitting on eight cylinders last week in making a clean aweep of the sevengame series with Sacramento. The statistics show that the Reds hit safely 108 times and stored seventy-three runs. The team batted 394 for the week and increased its season batting mark from 303 to 319. The club registered eleven or more hits in every contest, although adding but four home runs to its total for the season. Killefer's squad enters the second quarter of the league race holding an eight-game lead over all rivals in the league standings, although the team brings up the rear in home runs. Home runs or heavy batting averages alone don't win pennants.

The mystery play is adapted from a newspaper serial which ran thirty years ago, referred to by veterans as the most sensational ever printed. It is reliably related that the story caused daily sellouts and that newsboys, instead of shouting the news of the day, announced the next installment of "Dracula."

CONCERT DRAMA LISTED Unique in every feature will be the "Irish Concert-Drama" that Kate Beirne-O'Rourke will present in St. Vincent's Auditorium tomorrow evening. The setting is a replica of the royal court of King Laeghaire, last of the Irish pagan rulex. Patrick O'Neil, Irish tenor, will play the Irish poet of 1800 years ago. Neil O'Domnell-Carrington, soprano; Gorden McDonald, fluist; Verne Chirora, pianist; Dr. S. E. Bergman, violinist, and Kate Beirne-O'Rourke will be heard.

Straw or excelsior that has been alightly dampened is best for packing glass or china. The moisture causes both of these filling materials to swell, thus wedging the packing in between the breakable articles much tighter than it can be done by hand.

Different Colors

When there are a number of kiddies in the family, mother is wise if she marks their new stockings a different color for each child. Then on darning day all is not hopeless confusion, even if a couple of the youngsters are almost the same size.

JURY HAS BUSY SESSION TODAY

Three Major Crime Cases Set for Inquiry

Fixing and Plot Charges to be Under Surveillance

Asserted Charity-Ball Fraud Likewise Will be Up

Three major investigators including an asserted "fixing" case, charges that a group of eighteen persons operated a fraud scheme while promoting dances for war service organizations, and charges of criminal assault against a wealthy El Monte merchant, are on the grand jury calendar for hearing to-day.

In the asserted fixing case, the principal witnesses will be James Lyons and Mrs. Lyons, his wife. Lyons charges that he was arrested March I, last, and accused of sale, transportation of Priends then advised him to get in touch with a certain haberdasher who could "fix" the case pending in Municipal Court against him. Lyons told officers.

FINED AND JAILED

Lyons avers that he gave this mat $395 to "fix" the case, but he wafned $100 and ordered to serve thirty days in the County Jail. The "fixer" then returned $50 of the $395 to its owner, saying that the remainder had been used in mitigating the senience, he says.

Investigation of eighteen persons, accused of promoting dances in Los Angeles and suburbs and reaping large profits under the guise of aiding war service organization, also will be undertaken. The eighteen already are named in a complaint charging conspiracy to commit petty theft filed by the District Attorney.

CHARITY DANCE CASE

C. J. Gardner, asserted Los Angeles manager of the coast-wide organization, was arrested last April.

Shortly before a dance was to be given by the American War Mothers in Glendale. He was charged at that time with forging the ingorant for tickets for the American War Mothers to a check given him in payment for tickets for the American War Mothers' organization $125 for the privilege of promoting their dance and gave them 125 tickets which they could dispose of at $2 each.

According to investigating officers, Gardner paid the American War Mothers' arganization $125 for the privilege of promoting their dance and gave them 125 tickets which they could dispose of at $2 each.

T. R. Mitchell and A. E. Mitchell of San Prancisco, asserted heads of the organization, also are named with Gardner in the original complaint. Officers ascert they received to per cent of all of Cardner's profits. They still are at large.

Everywhere you see scenes like this

NEW house under construction; half a dozen cars in front of it. Or a factory working to capacity with a hundred, or five hundred cars around it.

Who own these cars? American workers.

How have they been purchased? Many of them as "used cars," through the convenient GMAC Plan.

The world goes forward in proportion as its workers can make effective use of their time. The used car has made it possible for millions of men and women to increase their incomes and improve their living by applying their time more effectively.

3 out of 5 buy used cars

Of the cars you see on the road today, three out of five have been purchased by their owners as "used cars." Many are serving as "second cars" for a family which no more cars to meet the requirements of all its a Many others are affording satisfactory transportation lies who otherwise would be denied automobile of The cars which General Motors dealers are taking offer real opportunities in unused transportation at They present a wide choice of body types and style convenience in purchase, General Motors extends the
